Things You Should Know

- PREHEATING PASTE is available at most stores that sell backpacking equipment.
- To reduce the possibility of rust and corrosion, flush tank and refill frequently with fresh fuel.
- During operation for an extended period at a low heat setting, you may notice an intermittent yellow flame. This can be corrected by adjusting the flame to a slightly higher level with the RED FUEL LEVER.
- Periodically squirt a few drops of oil into the oil hole in the PUMP CAP. This will keep the pump functioning properly.
